Some lessons to think about...

- Administrators may not be present during an emergency.
- The normal communication system may not be operable during an emergency.
- Does everyone understand their roles & responsibilities in an emergency?

Some lessons to think about...

- Does the plan include provisions for substitute teachers?
- Is there a procedure in place for student release during an emergency?
- Are non-ambulatory individuals addressed in the emergency plan?

Best Practices: VADIR

- Provide on-going staff training
- Enforce the Code of Conduct consistently and equitably
- Align the Code of Conduct with VADIR
- Ensure districts understand how to analyze and use data

National Trends Since Virginia Tech and Northern Illinois

- Safety audits
- ↑ mass notification
- Peace Officers (armed)
- Cameras
- Telephones in classrooms
- Applications asking felony conviction
- ↑ funding
- More referrals to mental health/counseling services
- Involuntary removal; return monitoring
- Procedures for reporting student behavior
- Training staff

Higher Ed Recordkeeping – Cleary Act

- Records for crimes on-campus, non-campus, public property, separate campus
- Crimes: hate, offenses, disciplinary action (arrests from drug, alcohol, illegal weapons possession)
- crimes reported to campus security authorities
- daily crime log
- obtain certain crime statistics from law enforcement agencies to incl. in annual security report

New York State Workplace Violence Prevention Law

- Section 27-b of State Labor Law
- Excludes employers as defined under SAVE
- Requires public employers to:
 - Do risk evaluation
 - Develop/implement programs to prevent and minimize workplace violence
 - Regularly evaluate

SAVE vs. Violence Prevention Regulation

SAVE:

- Schools
- Written emergency plans
- Student centered
- Emphasis on response
- Removal of disruptive students
- Involvement of teacher unions
- No enforcement

WVP standard:

- Not cover schools
- Violence specific
- Worker centered
- Emphasis on prevention
- Risk assessment
- Involvement of all unions
- Enforcement

Prevention

- All adults should:
 - Display warm, positive interest and involvement
 - Establish clear rules which are implemented consistently and with respect
 - Use mentoring connections to build connections with all students
 - Alert students and others if they are displaying unacceptable behavior toward others
 - Help students understand the power they have when they intervene to make a difference
 - Teach students about the reporting system and policies in your school

Remember.....

- Research shows that in schools where bullying is not an issue, EVERY child has at least one adult in the school that they feel comfortable talking to.
