

Are you interested in mentoring a young woman who is a promising leader? Apply for the Fight for Your Might Girls Empowerment Conference!

Application Deadline is Friday, June 15, 2015

Each year, The Joseph Toles Foundation sponsors educational learning experiences for children from all walks of life. This year 62 young women who have distinguished themselves as potential leaders and who are passionate about helping their communities and those around her will participate in the Fight for Your Might Empowerment Conference.

- To be eligible, the applicant must be an adult female residing in one of the 62 counties in New York State
- Be able to travel during the week of February 14th- February 21st 2016
- Be willing to work with a 10th grade female mentee through graduation of high school
- Shows an interest in improving herself and her community and
- Would not be able to access an experience like this if not for this opportunity

The Joseph Toles Foundation is seeking one adult female mentor and one female mentee from each county in the state of New York. Participants will board the Norwegian Breakaway for the 7-day learning experience. Fight for Your Might staff will work with the mentee/mentor team to make sure fundraising, travel to NYC, and all questions are answered before boarding. An introductory video can be found at <https://youtu.be/b0mI7Vr7CYQ>.

Application information and questions can be forwarded to Tolesfoundation@aol.com or 917-532-8694.

