Projecting Increases in the Consumer Price Index (CPI)

A large number of organizations project increases in the Consumer Price Index. NYSUT subscribes to Blue Chip Economic Indicators. This monthly publication presents 2013 and 2014 economic projections from approximately 50 sources. Twice each year, the publication also presents a long-range forecast which are made annually for each of the next five years as well as one five-year projection for the following five-year period. The most recent long-range forecasts were reported on page four of the March 2010 Bulletin.
