

Women at Work

Walking the tightrope

Do you struggle to balance professional and personal obligations?

You're not alone.

Women face unique challenges, fighting for the respect we deserve in the workplace, while still meeting the responsibilities necessary on the home front.

Join us for an afternoon of networking and discussion about how to strike this delicate balance.

For background, watch "Why women have to fight to be respected and liked at work" at <https://leanin.org/education/what-works-for-women-at-work-part-2-the-tightrope>

This is a free event sponsored by the NYSUT Rochester Regional Women's Committee.

Thursday, Oct. 10, 2019
5:30–7:30 p.m.

Monroe Community College
downtown campus, High Falls Room A&B
321 State St., Rochester, NY 14608

RSVP www.cvent.com/d/xyqcpp
for a free parking pass.

