Paul Revere told his friend that if the British came by land have one lantern and two if by sea.

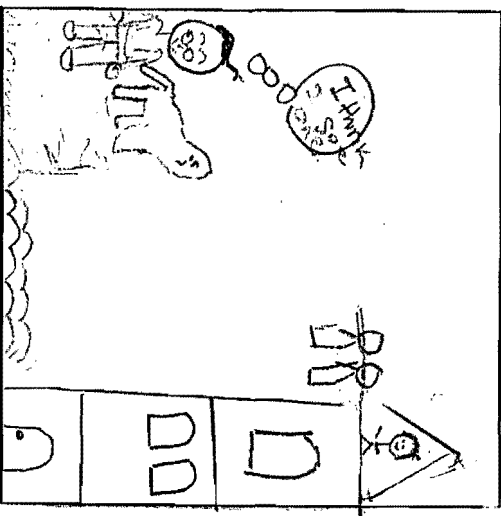

Paul saw one lantern. He doesn't go, he waited he lingered.

Paul Revere saw a second lantern. He sprang on his horse and warned everybody. The British

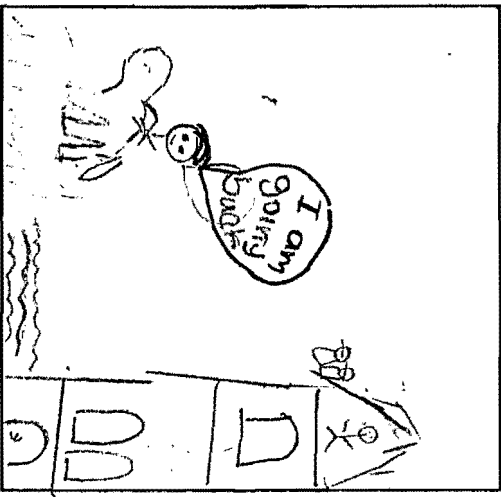

The Patriot Games from one side, the British came from the other side. Someone shot the first shot. That's how the Revolutionary war started.

Paul Revere's and his friends had a plan. the plan is that his friend being a lantern if the British are coming by land you is the British are coming
 by sea.

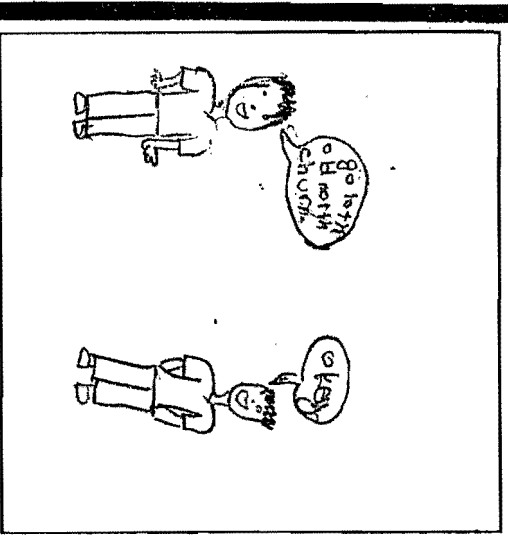

Paul Revere's
 friend was on top of the old church
 Paul Revere stamped
 he goes, then
 and lights a lantern.

Paul Revere's
 went back to Middlesex
 and Cambridge

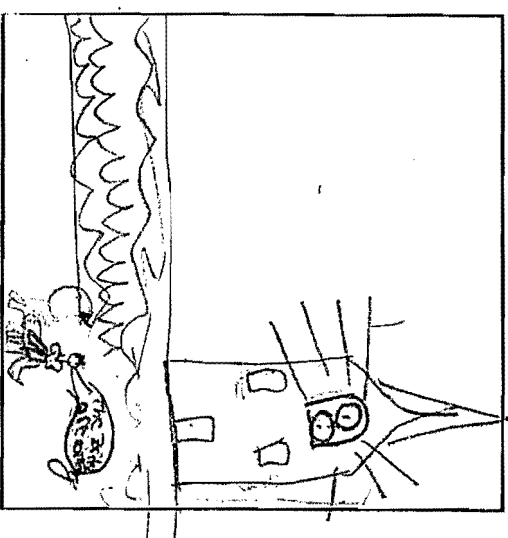

Last he said
 The British
 are coming
 by sea.

Paul Revere and his friend Robert Newman had a plan to go to the Old North Church
so he can know that they are coming by sea
or by land.

Next Paul Revere
waited for a signal
while he was waiting he patted his horse.

Then, he saw a signal
and he rode on his horse.

At last Paul Revere
warned the minute men.
The British are coming
by sea.
