

We love our school

My name is Pamela Rohring. I am a graduate of and now the Sign Language Educator at St. Mary's School for the Deaf.

My name is Christopher Martin. I am 17 years old and I have been a student at St. Mary's for 14 years.

We communicate with each other in our own language so students can learn and understand better. We would not want to go to any other school.

Support the students and educators at
New York State's schools for the deaf