

30 Percentage of NYSUT members who made up all new registered voters who cast ballots in November – a direct result of NYSUT's "Register the Unregistered" campaign which continues in 2012.

248 Contracts settled, out of 719 that expired.

$0 Legal fees paid by members for representation by NYSUT lawyers, who handled 1,444 cases, 60 percent of which were non-disciplinary; plus review of 2,101 legal inquiries from the field.

23 New bargaining units organized by NYSUT, with a potential of 1,949 new members.

178,542,643 Households exposed to NYSUT's advocacy ads on radio and television.

138 Workshop topics – from emergency preparedness to the economics of education in New York state – covered during NYSUT's statewide conferences.

79,111

Free education and health care posters and pamphlets requested by and mailed to members. For a complete list, visit www.nysut.org and click on "Publications & Multimedia."

21 Teams currently part of NYSUT's Local Action Project, a community outreach and coalition-building program. (93 teams have completed training since the program began in 1994.)

24 Advocacy rallies NYSUT sponsored.

633 Professional development seminars and courses offered by NYSUT's Education & Learning Trust. (11,653 members enrolled.)

1,300 Members and their families helped through NYSUT's confidential Social Services program.

NYSUT

Working for you

Belonging to NYSUT means you are a part of a vast and diverse union of professionals that reaches every corner of New York state. NYSUT is a federation of 1,350 locals that comprise public and private bargaining units for pre-K-12 teachers (788), school-related professionals (665), higher education faculty (79), health care professionals (19), government and library employees (10) and others, including non-profits (7), plus 45 retiree councils. Your dues support the many programs and services NYSUT provides to negotiate and enforce contracts, to provide professional development and guidance and to advocate on your behalf. Here's just a snapshot – by the numbers – of the myriad ways NYSUT works for you. (All numbers are based on activities in 2011.)

456,525 Call attempts made by NYSUT's Benchmark Polling for more than 30 projects that resulted in 45,428 interviews asking for input, opinion or conveying information.

27 Free human rights lesson plans that are available on www.nysut.org.

1,651 Members who received training in a variety of health & safety topics, from indoor environmental quality to handling special needs students. Additionally, NYSUT's Health & Safety Specialist fielded 260 requests for technical assistance and conducted two OSHA classes for 55 members.

153 Aid checks sent to members in need (135) and charities (12) from NYSUT's Disaster Relief Fund, a program NYSUT administers so members can readily help members in need.

1,056 Members who received training during seven NYSUT statewide conferences and Leadership Institute.

78 Press releases generated by NYSUT Communications.

3,575 Members from 728 locals who participated in workshops sponsored by NYSUT regional offices.

27 Member Benefits programs – from auto and home insurance to on-line shopping – that offer members discounts and help them save money. Visit www.memberbenefits.nysut.org to learn more.

147,320

Faxes, emails and postcards sent to the governor and lawmakers through NYSUT's Political Action Center and www.nysut.org.

Note: All numbers based on activities in 2011. Sources: NYSUT Field Services, Education & Learning Trust, NYSUT Office of General Counsel, NYSUT Accounting Office, NYSUT Program Services, NYSUT Legislation Office, NYSUT Communications, NYSUT Member Benefits, NYSUT's Benchmark Polling, NYSUT's Antonia Cortese Research and Educational Services, Lexis Nexis, Shore Johnson Magus.