CALL FOR ARTICLE PROPOSALS
FOR EDUCATOR'S VOICE, VOL. XI

Family Engagement and Community Partnerships

Educators have always embraced the practice of building deep and significant relationships with families. Family and community partnerships help to create more vibrant school communities and support a child's overall well-being by promoting the integration of academic, social and emotional learning. As school communities across NYS realize the importance of family and community engagement projects, they are actively interested in learning more about new and innovative research-based strategies.

The next volume will feature these important initiatives. We call for proposals from programs and partnerships, classrooms, schools and school districts, individuals or teams that are involved in cultivating these important family/school/community relationships.

Examples of submission areas include (but are not limited to):

- Community schools / wraparound social, health and community services
- Family-school engagement initiatives
- Collaboration with cultural institutions / community-based organizations
- Professional development and community partnerships in teacher education
- Community partnerships in higher education
- Parent and family networks / academic parent teacher teams
- Parent teacher home visits
- Building community in the classroom
- Productive parent-teacher communications models
- Family and community outreach initiatives
- Grassroots collaboration with the school community

EDITORIAL GUIDELINES

- Grade and Content Area: Author(s) can describe practices or programs in any grades (P-20) on the topic of family and community engagement.
- Audience: This is a practitioner journal. Our readers include teachers, school-related professionals, pupil personnel services providers, union leaders, parents, administrators, higher education faculty, researchers, legislators, and policymakers. For examples, please browse previous volumes of Educator's Voice.
- Please write your article to the practitioner. Authors are encouraged to write in a direct style designed to be helpful to both practitioners and to others committed to strengthening education. All education terms (i.e., jargon, all acronyms) should be defined for a broad audience. For articles with multiple authors, use one voice consistently. Please limit the use of writing in the first person.
- Article Length: The required article length is flexible. Please submit approximately 2,000 – 3,000 words (or 7-9 double-spaced pages plus references).
- Rights: Acceptance of a proposal is not a guarantee of publication. Publication decisions are made by the Editorial Board. NYSUT retains the right to edit articles. The author will have the right to review changes and if not acceptable to both parties, the article will not be included in Educator's Voice. NYSUT may also retain the article for use on the NYSUT website (www.nysut.org) or for future publication in NYSUT United.
- Manuscript Basics:
- Style
- Use American Psychological Association (APA) 6th edition style for in-text citations and references.
  - Do not use footnotes.
  - Double-space your manuscript.
- Graphics Guidelines
- Although your images will be embedded in the manuscript for review, submit all graphics as separate files.
  - Save all images in high-resolution (300 dpi). Anything downloaded from a website will be low-resolution (72 dpi) and will not be acceptable. If using a cellphone, choose high quality settings.
  - Any graphics (photographs, charts, tables, or samples of student work) must be submitted in PDF, TIFF, or JPEG files.
  - Add a parenthetical place marker to your manuscript for images that will be included in the appendix or elsewhere (for example, “see image 3 on p. 16”).
  - Image file names should correspond to image place markers in the manuscript (for example, “image 3 student work sample”).
  - We need permission to reprint artwork; you need release forms to use images that include people. Photos should illustrate the context, rather than the subject(s) looking posed.
  - Do not submit copyrighted material unless you have permission from the publisher.
