New York State’s Special Act and 853 schools – which educate students with unique physical and emotional needs – are in dire need of more state resources. Albany should do everything it can to support these schools and the professional, dedicated, quality educators who provide critical services to our at-risk students.

ALBANY

DON’T FORGET THESE SCHOOLS